MECHANISM OF INJURY:

According to Warner et al, when an automobile is struck from behind, a ramping effect is created, thereby causing the occupants of the automobile to move upward. This causes the headrest to now strike the head at a lower angle, creating a fulcrum for increased hyperextension of the neck. This increases the injury. (Warner CY, Stother CE, James MB, Decker RL. Occupant protection in rear-end collisions:II. The role of seat back deformation in injury reduction. 35th Stapp Car Crash Conference, 1991; SAE 912914)

According to Mertz and Patrick, the unaware occupant is at a greater risk of injury. (Mertz HJ, Patrick LM. Investigation of the kinematics and kinetics of whiplash. 1967; SAE 670919.)

Radanov and Sturzenegger found that patients who had rotated or inclined head position were much more likely to have symptoms at 2 years post-injury than those with a straight-on head position. (Radanov BP, Sturzenegger M. The effect of accident mechanisms and initial findings on the long-term outcome of whiplash injury. Journal of Musculoskeletal Pain 1996;4(4):47-59.)

According to Luo and Goldsmith, a small car can experience much higher accelerations in a minor impact and therefore increase the injury. (Luo Z, Goldsmith W. Reaction of a human head/neck/torso system to shock. Journal of Biomechanics 1991;24;7;499-510.)

According to Luo and Goldsmith, the faster and heavier the rear car is moving, the more severe the forces placed on the occupant in the front car. (Luo Z, Goldsmith W. Reaction of a human head/neck/torso system to shock. Journal of Biomechanics 1991;24;7;499-510.)

According to Allen, Barnes and Bodiwala, shoulder belts are very effective at saving lives in auto accidents, but there is some evidence that they can actually cause more damage in a rear end collision. Because the body is held in place, the neck suffers worse hyperflexion. The cervical spine may also undergo a twisting motion from the head restraint, causing a more complex injury. (Allen MJ, Barnes MR, Bodiwala GG. The effect of seat belt legislation on injuries sustained by car occupants. Injury: The British Journal of Accident Surgery 1985; 16; 471-476).

A study by Radanov found that patients who reported pain immediately after their accidents were more likely to have pain at two years post-injury. It is generally recognized that patients with immediate symptoms are at a higher risk of long-term pain from whiplash. (Radanov BP, Sturzenegger M, De Stefano G. Long-term outcome after whiplash injury. A two-year follow-up considering the features of injury mechanisms and somatic, radiologic and psychosocial findings. Medicine 1995; 74(5): 281-296.)

HIPAA NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This Notice of Privacy describes how we may use and disclose your protected health information (PHI) to carry our treatment, payment or health care operations (TPO) for other purposes that are permitted or required by law. “Protected Health Information” is information about you, including demographic information that may identify you and that related to your past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition and related care services.

Use and Disclosures of Protected Health Information:
Your protected health information may be used and disclosed by your physician, our staff and others outside of our office that are involved in your care and treatment for the purpose of providing health care services to you, pay your health care bills, to support the operations of the physician’s practice, and any other use required by law.

Treatment: We will use and disclose your protected health information to provide, coordinate, or manage your health care and any related services. This includes the coordination or management of your health care with a third party. For example, we would disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to a home health agency that provides care to you. For example, your health care information may be provided to a physician to whom you have been referred to ensure that the physician has the necessary information to diagnose or treat you.

Payment: Your protected health information will be used, as needed, to obtain payment for your health care services. For example, obtaining approval for a hospital stay may require that your relevant protected health information be disclosed to the health plan to obtain approval for the hospital admission.

Healthcare Operations: We may disclose, as needed, your protected health information in order to support the business activities of your physician’s practice. These activities include, but are not limited to, quality assessment activities, employee review activities, training of medical students, licensing, marketing, and fund raising activities, and conduction or arranging for other business activities. For example, we may disclose your protected health information to medical school students that see patients at our office. In addition, we may use a sign-in sheet at the registration desk where you will be asked to sign your name and indicate your physician. We may also call you by name in the waiting room when your physician is ready to see you. We may use or disclose your protected health information, as necessary, to contact you to remind you of your appointment.
We may use or disclose your protected health information in the following situations without your authorization. These situations included as required by law, public health issues, communicable diseases, health oversight, abuse or neglect, food and drug administration requirements, legal proceedings, law enforcement, coroners, funeral directors, and organ donation. Required uses and disclosures under the law, we must make disclosures to you when required by the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services to investigate or determine our compliance with the requirements of Section 164.500.

OTHER PERMITTED AND REQUIRED USES AND DISCLOSURES WILL BE MADE ONLY WITH YOUR CONSENT, AUTHORIZATION OR OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT UNLESS REQUIRED BY LAW.

You may revoke this authorization, at any time, in writing, except to the extent that your physician or the physician’s practice has taken an action in reliance on the use or disclosure indicated in the authorization.
